INTERINSTITUTIONAL AGREEMENTS

INTERINSTITUTIONAL AGREEMENT of 13 April 2016
on Better Law-Making

Ex-post evaluation of existing legislation
“The three Institutions confirm the importance of the greatest possible consistency and coherence in organising their work to evaluate the performance of Union legislation, including related public and stakeholder consultations.”

“... evaluations of existing legislation and policy, based on ✓ efficiency,
✓ effectiveness,
✓ relevance,
✓ coherence and ✓ value added,
should provide the basis for impact assessments of options for further action.”
IMPLEMENTATION REPORTS
